2. The Validity period for lifting of these allocations will be fifty (50) days for each allocation month separately, starting from the first day of the month preceding the allocation month and ending on the 20th day of the allocation month. It will be mandatory for State and UT Governments to deposit the cost of foodgrains to FCI latest by 15th of each allocation month (crediting the amount to the FCI account). However, lifting of foodgrains in instalments against allocations within the validity period will be allowed. Detailed instructions on extension of validity period for deposit of cost and lifting of foodgrains under TPDS have already been issued vide this Department's letter No.1-2/2007-BP-III dated 27.6.2011).

3. The rice allocated under TPDS should be distributed in the form of whole grain. However, the allocated wheat may be distributed as wheat flour/atta or fortified wheat flour/atta through the network of fair price shops to AAY & BPL categories of card holders under the TPDS, subject to the terms and conditions as laid down in this Department's letter No.4-7/2005-Py.IV/PD.I (Pt.) dated 17th January, 2008 as modified from time to time.

4. The foodgrains allocated under TPDS should be utilized only for the purpose for which the same have been allocated and not for any other purpose/scheme. This is in consonance with the Utilization Certificate which is required to be regularly furnished by the State/UT under the PDS (Control) Order, 2001 on mandatory basis.

5 It is requested that UC for the foodgrains allocated under TPDS may be furnished regularly in the prescribed format on monthly basis within 2 months from the month for which allocation is made as stipulated under PDS(Control) Order, 2001.

6. A copy of this allocation order is available on the website of the Department viz <http://fcamin.nic.in>.

Yours faithfully,

(Sandeep Saxena)

Under Secretary to the Government of India
